“ Tito Tony has always been my favorite uncle. Growing up, I remember that everytime there was a family gathering my other uncles were loud and “mayabang” and try to outdo each other, but not Tito Tony. He was the quiet and humble one. Perhaps that is why you are everybody’s favorite uncle. We all grew up in the same house with Lola Aida so I have a lot of fond memories with you in it. My most favorite was when you used to take me to school and pick me up everyday when I was in the first grade. You would buy me ice cream before we went home everyday and I enjoyed that a lot. You have always been our kindest and most generous uncle. Even at my wedding you were there to support me and drove me to church.

I am so sad that I cannot be there to see you for the last time. God speed Tito Tony... you will be in our hearts forever! I will always remember my favorite uncle with a smile on his face. We’ll see you again in God’s time! 😊😊
