“ In Loving Memory of My Sister-in-Law Liz;

For 48 wonderful years, she was so much more than family—she was a source of inspiration, love, and grace. From your first call I made to her parents' home, and asked to speak to her older brother (my future husband) she brought a warmth that never faded.

She was a woman of many gifts—an artist whose talent spoke in colors and light, a photographer who captured moments most of us would have missed. As a devoted mother to her son Matthew, loving daughter, dedicated teacher, and passionate coach, she shaped lives with both heart and purpose. Liz's wanderlust carried her to new places, but she always brought pieces of the world back with her—in stories, laughter, and a sense of wonder.

She was the kind of person who made everyone feel seen and valued. I will carry her spirit in the brushstrokes of a painting, the shutter of a camera, the wisdom of a lesson, and the memory of every journey we shared together. Thank you for the beauty you brought to our world—for loving deeply, teaching gently, and living brightly.

*Forever in our hearts, until we meet again,
Patty*
