In Loving Memory of Faigata Tauai

Beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother, and Friend

Faigata Tauai, a devoted husband, loving father, cherished grandfather, and faithful servant of God, passed away surrounded by his loved ones. He was a man of strength, laughter, generosity, and deep faith—fearing no one but God.

Faigata, affectionately known by many as “Boxer,” is survived by his beloved wife Tepora Tauai, and his kids: Sabrina Tuilesu, Chavis Moeai, Adrienne Vaoleti, Rennelle Lalogafau, and Reylynn Tauai. He also leaves behind his treasured grandchildren: Destyn Ehia, Anelanani Moeai, Auli’inani Moeai, Journie Howard, and Malcolm Howard. Faigata is His bond with family extended deeply to his surviving siblings—Judy Falealili, Tony Tauai, Liua Sialoi, and Lisa Lole—whom he held close throughout his life.

Faigata served faithfully in the ministry at Mt. Zion in Compton, California, where he directed the church band and was revered as one of the greatest bass players to ever grace a stage. His music uplifted souls, and his leadership inspired many.

A true provider, Faigata worked tirelessly for over 15 years with his company, supporting his family with unwavering dedication until illness made it impossible. Despite his health challenges, his spirit never wavered.

He was a social soul, known for his warm conversations, big-heartedness, and that signature smile. Whether it was offering the shirt off his back, sharing a laugh, enjoying a glass of Hennessy with a Cuban cigar, or dominating a game of dominoes, Faigata found joy in life's simple pleasures—especially when surrounded by his family.

He was the heart of every gathering, the one cracking jokes, telling stories, and bringing people together over a good meal. His legacy of love, laughter, faith, and family will live on in all who knew and loved him.

Our father was a rare soul. He will be deeply missed, but his memory will forever live in our hearts.
