“ *What I miss the most about my soul mate "MY Lupe" is her laugh. I wish I cud have traded places with her in the hospital .Not to sound selfish but I think our children need there mother more than me We all loose loved ones in our life it's all part of living. But Wen I Losted my Lupe it's been so hard to move on. The one comfort I do have is "I WILL BE WITH HER AGAIN " Wen it's my time. You have a very strong presence about you Lupe even in passing . Don't forget to visit me in my dreams my love. Sometimes I cry when I think of Lupe but not in a bad way .
