“ Lloyd was a good guy he took me and my ex girlfriend in and let us stay with him rent free but of course we still hooked him up every chance we got he was a caring,loving person who liked to help anyone in need I miss Lloyd i still remember the night he wanted a ride to the hospital mine you he wasn't the type to go to hospitals willingly but he couldn't take the pain in his kidneys so we dropped him off and told him to call us when he was ready to get picked up..well a couple days went by and when he did call he was crying and that's when he told us that the doctor told him he had a week left to live :(r.i.p Lloyd Foutz gone but not forgotten
