“ Shannon was so many people's person. She was definitely mine. Every morning I'd come early, take the seat across from her desk and talk about anything and everything. But the best conversations we had were about dogs, her niece that she brag brag brag about and her memories of Hollywood. All of it so good that I wished she write some of it down. Another thing that made her amazing was she knew people. She knew your mood just from the way you walked or even a slight expression. Nothing got by her. When things were bad, she always had a good word. When things were good, she always had the best smile, and that laugh! Even after I left I'd call her and joke that I needed a room, and sometimes ask if she needed anything if I was driving by. Hers was the only extension I never forgot and I'll never forget her either!

“ Shannon was and will always be a beacon of light, joy and humanity. She was highly insightful and resourceful. And authentic in every way. Whether she was interacting with student interns or top-level corporate chairpersons. Shannon is truly unique. She continues to watch over her family, friends and furry loved ones. Rest in Peace & Glory, our wonderful friend.

“ Shannon was a bright light in the lives of all of us who knew her. She made coming to work fun. I would walk in every morning and say, "Good morning, Sunshine!", and we were off to the races. God, we would laugh and laugh. I'm sure they could hear us on the third floor. Shannon took me under her wing as soon as I started working with her. She was incredibly loyal to those she cared about. She was a good friend and I miss her every day. It was my absolute privilege to know her.

“ Shannon was IT. She was a dear and Amazing Friend and was THE person who made miracles happen for all of the crazy requests we had to deal with in Bldg. 88. Her elegance in handling and greeting the visitors to Bldg. 88 was unsurpassed. Including my parents who were in town 2 different times and came onto the Lot for lunch. After meeting Shannon, I was Always asked, "How is Shannon? Tell her we send our Love." That is Shannon's legacy - Love and Elegance. I will miss her forever.
