“ Grandma was very kind to me and accepting of me into her family. She frequently asked where I was at family events I had to miss for work. She was loving and warm when she hugged me. I will truly miss her, especially when she would say in her thick Arkansas accent "Nikki, this is Grandma " as she left a message on our phone.

A butterfly lights beside us like a sunbeam

And for a brief moment its glory and beauty belong to our world. But then it flies again

And though we wish it could have stayed...

*We feel lucky to have seen it. I am lucky to have met Virginia Cook. Love,
Michelle*
